

International Thai Massage Retreat & Conference

Veli Iz, Croatia 23-27 June, 2010

The island of Iz

The 2010 International Thai Massage Retreat and Conference takes place on the island of Veli Iz, near the coastal city of Zadar, Croatia. Zadar is easily reached by air from most European cities. Direct bus service is available to Zadar from neighboring European cities. Once in Zadar, regular ferry service runs to the island of Iz, (one hour).

The Korinjak hotel and resort

Hotel rooms and camping are available to all participants. All workshops take place at the resort. The daily prices for hotel rooms (including two meals per day) are as follows: Double rooms, 35-50 euros per person; Single rooms, 65 euros per day; Camping costs only 30 euros per day. Breakfast and lunch are included in all daily rates. For information write to thaiarchives@gmail.com, or visit the hotel web site at: <http://korinjak.hr/en/>

General information and dates

The Thai Massage Retreat & Conference is the only event of its kind in the world of traditional Thai healing arts. It is open to all students and practitioners of traditional Thai massage. Participants must have a minimum of thirty hours of Thai massage study with any teacher around the world. You do not need to be a member of THAI to attend this event. The conference begins on Wednesday, 23 June and ends on Sunday, 27 June. All participants must arrive on Iz island on Wednesday, 23 June.

Registration and schedule

The registration fee for this event, including all workshops and activities, is 329 euros. To reserve your space, a non-refundable deposit of 100 EUR is required, payable by credit card on the THAI web site. Some of the finest teachers of Thai massage will present a wide selection of specialized workshops over this 4 day event. There will be scheduled practice and trading time each day, and social activities at night. A certificate for 35 hours of study is awarded to each participant.

The only event of its kind

The International Thai Massage Retreat & Conference is the only event of its kind in the world of traditional Thai massage. Join us to share, learn and grow in your practice. Space is limited, so register today to hold your place at this important event.

For more information on workshops, presentations and activities, go to: www.thaihealingalliance.com